

NCLB Title I
Policy of Parental Involvement

Stony Mill Elementary School will take the following actions to involve parents in the joint development of its school parental involvement plan under section 1112 of the ESEA:

- *By discussing on Oct. 4, 2011 the Title I school wide program at the P.T.O meeting
- *Planning to review the parental involvement policy at the Dec. 6 P.T.O. meeting

Stony Mill Elementary School will take the following actions to involve parents in the process of school review and improvement under section 1116 of the ESEA:

- *By reporting the S.O.L. scores
- *By reviewing the progress reports and report cards

Stony Mill Elementary School will provide the following necessary coordination, technical assistance, and other support to assist Title I, Part A schools in planning and implementing effective parental involvement activities to improve student academic achievement and school performance:

- *By having parent-teacher conferences on Oct. 6, 2011 from 3:30 -6:30 p.m. and on March 1, 2012 from 3:30-6:30 p.m.
- *By having parents sign the folders of work sent home weekly by teachers.

Stony Mill Elementary School will coordinate and integrate parental involvement strategies in Part A with parental involvement strategies under the following other programs:

- *VPI(Virginia Preschool Initiative)
- *Study Island Computer program(Grades Kindergarten-5)-in Reading, Math, Science, & Social Studies

Stony Mill Elementary School will take the following actions to conduct, with the involvement of parents, an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of this parental involvement policy in improving the quality of the school. The evaluation will include identifying barriers to greater participation by parents in parental involvement activities(with particular attention to parents who are economically disadvantaged, are disabled, have limited English proficiency, have limited literacy, or are of any racial or ethnic minority background). The school will use the findings of the evaluation about its parental involvement policy and activities to design strategies for more effective parental involvement, and to revise, if necessary (and with the involvement of parents) its parental involvement policies.

*Parents will discuss the effectiveness of the parental involvement policy at the May 3, 2012 P.T.O. program.

*Parents can discuss improvements needed at the school at the March 1, 2012 parent-teacher conference.

1. Stony Mill Elementary School will build the schools' and parent's capacity for strong parental involvement, in order to ensure effective involvement of parents and to support a partnership among the school involved, parents, and the community to improve student academic achievement, through the following activities specifically described below:

A. The school will provide assistance to parents of children served by the school, as appropriate, in understanding topics such as the following, by undertaking the actions described in this paragraph—

Parent Responsibilities

We, as parents, will support our children’s learning in the following ways:

- *Signing the planner
- *Making sure homework is completed.

Stony Mill Elementary School will:

1. Involve parents in the planning, reviewing, and improvement of the school’s parental involvement policy, in an organized, ongoing, and timely way.
2. Involve parents in the joint development of any schoolwide program plan, in an organized, ongoing, and timely way.
3. Hold an annual meeting to inform parents of the school’s participation in Title I, Part A programs, and to explain the Title I, Part A requirements, and the right of parents to be involved in Title I, Part A programs. The school will convene the meeting at a convenient time to parents, and will offer a flexible number of parental involvement meetings, such as in the morning or evening, so that as many parents as possible are able to attend. The school will invite to this meeting all parents of children participating in Title I, Part A programs (participating students), and will encourage them to attend.
4. Provide information to parents of participating students in an understandable and uniform format, including alternative formats upon the request of parents with disabilities, and, to the extent practicable, in a language that parents can understand.
5. Provide to parents of participating children information in a timely manner about Title I, Part A programs that includes a description and explanation of the school’s curriculum, the forms of academic assessment used to measure children’s progress, and the proficiency levels students are expected to meet.
6. On the request of parents, provide opportunities for regular meetings for parents to formulate suggestions, and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions about the education of their children. The school will respond to any such suggestions as soon as practicably possible.
7. Provide to each parent an individual student report about the performance of their child on the State assessment in at least math, language arts and reading.
8. Provide each parent timely notice when their child has been assigned or has been Taught for four (4) or more consecutive weeks by a teacher who is not highly Qualified within the meaning of the term in section 200.56 of the Title I Final Regulations (67 Fed. Reg. 71710, December 2, 2002).
