

Working with Autism Spectrum Disorder in the General Education Classroom

When: July 16, 2009 (9:30 am–
2:00 pm)

Where: ECC

Who Should Attend:

- Regular Education Teachers
- Special Education Teachers
- Guidance Counselors
- Administrators

This informative and participant-centered conference will include such topics as:

- Working with students with Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) in inclusive settings
- Underlying Characteristics of ASD
- Resources to support teaching (the T/TAC Library)

Recertification Points: 5 Points (use option 2)

How To Register

Use the link below to register for this conference:

[http://spreadsheets.google.com/viewform?
formkey=cjNLV3JCCc29vQUR3ekZZeFJtVHhSNHc6MA..](http://spreadsheets.google.com/viewform?formkey=cjNLV3JCCc29vQUR3ekZZeFJtVHhSNHc6MA..)

Or e-mail Jeff Early at jeff.early@pcs.k12.va.us to register

Presenters

Teresa Lyons, M.Ed., Coordinator of Low Incidence Disabilities and Assistive Technology, T/TAC at Virginia Tech - Teresa Lyons has worked in special education as an Early Childhood Special Education Teacher, a teacher of elementary students with autism, and as an Inclusion/Autism Specialist serving children from PK to high school. Her areas of interest are in the areas of autism, assistive technology, communication and intellectual disabilities.

Pamela Lloyd-Curtis, M.Ed., M.Mus., Coordinator of Low incidence Disabilities and Instructional Supports, T/TAC at Virginia Tech - Pam has worked in education as a cello teacher, a paraprofessional for students with multiple and complex disabilities, a teacher of elementary students with Asperger Syndrome, an Educational Director, and a special education teacher for students at the elementary and high school levels. Her areas of interest include comprehensive planning for students with ASD and creating instructional resources for teachers in the areas of literacy and mathematics.